

Praise for:

The College to Career Road Map: A Four-Year Guide to Finding Your Path

“So many students drift through college aimlessly, only to panic near the end of senior year—with the real world quickly approaching! By providing a specific and detailed roster of experiences and action items students should check off during each of their four years in school, The College to Career Road Map affords them the opportunity to hone their talents, build their skillsets, take advantage of available resources, and focus on the small but critical steps that lead to an intelligent career decision. Savvy parents will make sure their students have this one on their bookshelves.”

ALEXANDRA LEVIT

Author of They Don't Teach Corporate in College:

A Twenty-Something's Guide to the Business World (Career Press, 2004)

www.alexandralevit.com

“This book does an excellent job of helping students find a balance between practical concerns and pursuing their professional passions. The authors provide such thorough advice that I challenge the reader to find something they left out.”

DR. JANIS BRODY

Author of Bringing Home the Laundry: Effective Parenting for College and Beyond (Taylor Publishing, 2001)

www.janisbrody.com

“The most detailed and easy-to-use guide to college and career preparation I’ve seen. The authors get it right: Not only will students who use The College to Career Road Map leave college with the skills and connections to start their careers, but—most importantly—they will also have found ways to connect career to their life’s purpose.”

BETH FEINE

Assistant Director of Career Services
St. John’s University
Personal and Career Coach Life Unbounded
www.lifeunbounded.com

“The College to Career Road Map is brimming with knowledge and vision. Every section invites students to consider their passions, innate talents, and what matters most as they embark upon their paths through each year of college. The writers have drawn from decades of experience to enumerate invaluable resources, opportunities, and strategies for success along the way. This book is a sensible companion (or requirement!) for freshman seminars. I will highly recommend it to my students.”

MARY BURMASTER

Adjunct Instructor
Minneapolis Community & Technical College
www.minneapolis.edu

